Separate Fuel Policy for State Road Transport Undertakings

193. SHRI D. B. CHANDRE GOWDA: Will the Minister of SURFACE TRANSPORT be pleased to state:

(a) whether the Karnataka Government has urged the Central Government to evolve a separate fuel policy for State road transport undertakings in view of the periodic hike in fuel prices;

(b) whether the Central Government have examined the said request of the Karnataka Government; and

(c) if so, what are the details thereof and Government's reaction thereto?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF SURFACE TRANSPORT (SHRI RAJESH PILOT): (a) to (c) A suggestion had been made by the Government of Karnataka in the meeting of TDC in September, 1987 and has been reiterated by the Transport Minister of Karnataka in the recently held Seminar on "Evaluation of Materials Management in STUs" on 24-6-1988 about separate fuel policy i.e. special concessional price of diesel for State Transport Uudertakings, as against other users and that the frequent hikes in fuel prices have been adversely affecting the State Transport Undertakings. There has been no increase in diesel price since 1986. Even the surcharge of 5 per cent on excise duty imposed in the budget proposals 1988 is being absorbed by the oil companies under Department of Petroleum.
